Chicago, Ill.- The UIC baseball team closes out its home schedule this weekend with a pivotal conference clash against Butler at Les Miller Field beginning on Saturday at noon.

UIC and Butler will begin the series with a twinbill on Saturday, followed by a single game on Sunday at noon.

The Flames (28-17, 17-6 Horizon League) will get an opportunity to clinch its fifth consecutive Horizon League regular season title and a No. 1 seed in the Horizon League Tournament this weekend. Three more wins will guarantee both for UIC.

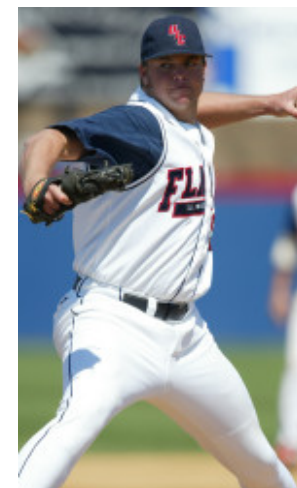

UIC has won 25 of its last 33 games and leads the conference in team ERA (3.80).

The Flames have been on an offensive tear, averaging nine runs a game in the last 26 contests while pounding out an average of over 12 hits per nine innings during that span.

UIC will celebrate the careers of its seniors following Sunday's game.
