Date And Time Changes Announced For Baseball's Series Against Butler This Weekend

Series now starts on Saturday at noon with doubleheader; single game to be played on Sunday at noon.

May 11, 2006

Chicago, Ill.- Due to threats of inclement weather in the Chicagoland area, the UIC baseball team's three-game series versus Butler at Les Miller Field this weekend will start on Saturday with a doubleheader beginning at 12:05 p.m. Central and conclude with a single game at 12:05 p.m. Central on Sunday.

The series was originally slated to begin with a single game on Friday at 4:00 p.m., but a high probability for showers that day forced the game to be moved to Sunday.

Saturday's twinbill start time is now an hour earlier after it was originally scheduled for 1:05 p.m.

Sunday's game will be followed by Senior Day festivities.
