Zach Peterson Named Horizon League Pitcher Of The Week

Complete-game victory by junior RHP earns him second league award of the year.

March 28, 2006

Chicago, Ill.- University of Illinois at Chicago junior righthander Zach Peterson (Minnetonka, Minn./Minnetonka H.S.) was named Horizon League Pitcher of the Week for the period ending March 27, the league office announced.

Peterson earned his first collegiate complete-game victory on Friday, scattering seven hits and allowing just two runs in nine innings while fanning a career-high seven batters in UIC's 5-2 victory over UW-Milwaukee on March 24.

The junior starter is now 3-2 on the season with a league-best 1.84 ERA.

This is the second time this season that Peterson, a 2005 All-Horizon League First Teamer, was named the league's Pitcher of the Week. He earned the honor on March 7th after a win over then-No. 18 Ole Miss.

UIC returns to action on Wednesday at Valparaiso with first pitch slated for 2:00 p.m.
