Long Beach, Calif.- A dominant performance from Long Beach State pitcher Andrew Carpenter kept the UIC baseball team's offense at bay as the Flames were downed 6-0 by the Dirtbags at Blair Field on Saturday.

UIC fell to 2-4 with the loss, while LBSU improved to 8-4.

The Flames were only able to produce one hit on the day, as senior C Justin Johnson broke up Carpenter's no-hitter in the seventh with a single to right field.

Sophomore 2B Mark Hallberg coaxed a walk out of Carpenter in the second for UIC's other baserunner.

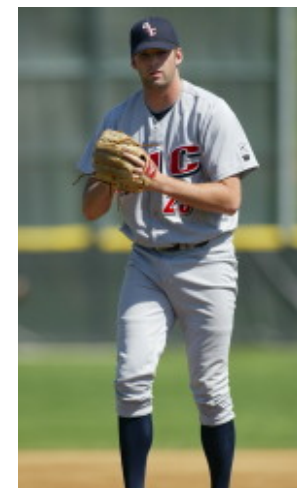

It was a career game for Carpenter, who three nine innings of shutout baseball with eight strikeouts.

UIC lefty Joe Skinner (0-2) was tagged with the loss.

A five-run second inning, started by Kip Masuda's three-run homer, doomed the Flames.
