Mesa, Ariz.- One day after pitchers and catchers reported for Chicago Cubs spring training, the UIC baseball team will land at the very same spot to open the 2006 campaign as the Flames prepare to face Air Force in their season opener at HoHoKam Park this Friday.

The Flames and Falcons will play at 10:30 a.m. Mountain (11:30 a.m. Central), followed by a game between UIC and Creighton at approximately 2:30 p.m. Mountain.

UIC, the defending Horizon League champions and a 2005 NCAA Regional participant, will team the core of last year's squad with a slew of talented newcomers who aim to take the program to even greater heights in 2006.
