Chicago, Ill.- The UIC baseball team completed a dominating three-game sweep over Butler on Sunday, combining another offensive onslaught with a four-hit shutout of the Bulldogs in a 12-0 victory at Les Miller Field.

UIC (31-17, 20-6 Horizon League) sent its seniors out in style on Senior Day, pounding out 14 hits and scoring in double-digits for the fourth consecutive game to sweep the weekend and season series over Butler (17-30, 9-18 Horizon League).

Senior starter Ryan Martin improved to 4-1 in his final home start, throwing six shutout innings and allowing just three hits.

Two other seniors had solid days at the plate, as catcher Justin Johnson hit a three-run homer and first baseman Bryan Nolte went 2-for-2 with an RBI.

Senior hurler John Flood also got in on the action, picking up his first collegiate hit and RBI on a single to left center in the eighth inning that plated Bart Babineaux.

Leading 4-0 heading into the fifth, UIC scored nine runs in the final four innings to put the game out of reach.
