Mike Dee Selected For Induction Into Wisconsin Baseball Coaches Association Hall Of Fame

UIC skipper's successful career earns prestigious honor from WBCA.

Dec. 30, 2005

Chicago, Ill.- The Wisconsin Baseball Coaches Association announced on Thursday that UIC Head Baseball Coach Mike Dee will be inducted into the WBCA Hall of Fame this February.

Entering his eighth season at the helm of the UIC baseball team, Dee has rebuilt the Flames into a perennial Horizon League power. Fresh off the program's second Horizon League Tournament title and NCAA Regional berth in the last three years, UIC has gone 234-160-1 under Dee's leadership and racked up five Horizon League regular season crowns.

Dee has been named the Horizon League Coach of the Year five times during his seven-year tenure at UIC.

In addition to athletes from the Chicagoland area and around the country, Dee has coached numerous players from the Wisconsin area. Six players on this year's UIC baseball roster call Wisconsin home, including 2005 Horizon League Tournament MVP Ryan Zink (Madison) and 2005 All-Horizon League First Team selection Mark Hallberg (Barron).

Prior to taking the reigns of the UIC baseball program, Dee was an assistant coach at the University of Minnesota. There he founded the Minnesota Instructional Baseball School, which became the third-largest of its kind in the U.S.

Before entering the college ranks, Dee served as head coach of his high school alma mater at Aquinas High School in La Crosse, Wis. In six seasons Dee compiled a record of 100-26 at Aquinas, accumulating five conference titles, six
