Chicago, Ill.- With wins in 17 of its last 20 games, the UIC baseball team will seek to keep up its hot play of late when the Flames step out of the Horizon League slate and into Frank Eck Stadium to face Notre Dame this Tuesday.

First pitch is scheduled for 6:05 p.m. ET/5:05 p.m. Central.

Flames fans unable to see the game in person can watch the action for free via a live webcast on Notre Dame's athletic website, www.und.com.

Since UIC and Notre Dame are CSTV partners, Flames fans can log in easily with the same e-mail address and password used for HLN All Access content.

UIC has gone 11-3 in the last three weeks, with a team batting average of .303 (143-for-472) and a team ERA of 3.34 in the span. In eight of the last nine games UIC has scored six or more runs, while in three of the last six contests UIC pitching has held opposing offenses to just one run.

The Flames and Fighting Irish were conference mates briefly as both were members of the Midwestern Collegiate Conference West Division in 1995 (UIC's first season in what is now the Horizon League) until the Irish left for the BIG EAST following the year.

UIC is 4-25 all-time against the Irish, with the last meeting between the two teams coming on April 29, 1999 (a 3-1 Notre Dame win).

Larry Gempp Jr., the reigning Horizon League Player of the Week, is leading UIC in hitting with a .396 (57-for-144) average.
