Chicago, Ill. - On Saturday, November 16, over 100 UIC student-athletes, coaches and staff proved again why UIC Athletics is about more than wins and losses.

The volunteer group gathered at Pickens-Kane storage on north Halsted Street at 9:00 a.m. to deliver food to needy families for the Thanksgiving holiday.

It was the tenth year that UIC Athletics has participated in the Zorich Care to Share Program. This year, the Flames delivered food to St. Sabina Parish at 78th and Racine on Chicago's Southside.

The food will now be distributed to local families in the next week.
