Chicago, Ill. - The UIC men's basketball team begins a critical three-game road trip on Thursday night as they travel to Youngstown, Ohio, to take on Youngstown State at 6:00 p.m. CST, at the Beeghly Center.

The game will be broadcast on tape delay on ESPN Radio 1000 AM.

Over the next eight days, the Flames (16-7, 7-4), who are in the midst of a four-game winning streak, will battle the Penguins while also making stops to play at Cleveland State on Saturday, Feb. 14th and UW-Green Bay on Wednesday, Feb. 18th. UIC currently finds itself in fourth place in the Horizon League, but just a game-and-a-half behind both Wright State and the Phoenix, who are tied for second place with identical 9-3 league marks.

The Flames take a 10-0 all-time record versus Youngstown State into Thursday's meeting, but UIC has barely escaped the Beeghly Center with a victory in its last three trips. Those three contests were decided by a total of 10 points, including a pair of two-point UIC victories.

The Flames will be counting on seniors Cedrick Banks and Martell Bailey to continue their strong play over the next
