Chicago, Ill. - Saturday's contest between the UIC men's basketball team and UW-Green Bay at 7:00 p.m. at the UIC Pavilion marks the halfway point in the 2003-04 Horizon League campaign. And as the season heads into the final five weeks, the Flames are striving for a coveted first-round bye in the Horizon League Tournament, which is earned by finishing in the top three in the league.

UIC currently sits in a tie for fifth place at 3-4, three games behind UW-Green Bay and Wright State, who are in a tie for second place with identical 6-1 records.

The Flames have enjoyed success of late versus the Phoenix, having won the last four games in the series and six of the last seven contests.

UW-Green Bay, though, is the hottest team in the Horizon League with 10 wins in its last 11 outings while posting a perfect 3-0 league road record.

These two schools have a storied past as Saturday's contest is the 66th all-time meeting with the Flames and Phoenix
