Chicago, Ill. - The UIC men's basketball has never lost to Youngstown State, owning a 16-0 all-time record against the Penguins. That mark will be put to the test on Saturday night when the Flames (9-14, 4-6) head into the Beeghly Center to take on Youngstown State (9-14, 4-7) at 6:35 p.m. CST.

UIC, which has dropped five straight decisions, is hoping to duplicate the strong February it enjoyed last season when the Flames went 6-2 down the stretch to secure a third-place finish in the Horizon League. That late-season run started, ironically, with a win at Youngstown State, 70-63.

Junior Othyus Jeffers has been carrying the load of late for UIC, averaging 17.3 points, 11.7 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.0 steals in his last three outings.

The Penguins are paced by All-Horizon League guard Quin Humphrey, who leads the team in scoring (17.9 ppg) and rebounding (6.8 rpg).
