

SOFTBALL

Schedule/Results | Meet the Team | News Releases | Archives

Softball Downs Ball State in Saturday Nightcap

Luli pitches complete-game one-hitter in 1-0 victory

Feb. 19, 2000

Raleigh, N.C. - Just one day after throwing a no-hitter against Ohio University, senior Samantha Luli turned in another gem on the mound for the No. 22 UIC Flames.

Luli allowed just one hit in seven innings as UIC beat Ball State Saturday night at the Triangle Classic in Raleigh, N.C. The win gave the Flames a 2-1 record through two days at the tournament and moved their overall record to 11-5.

Luli was also shined at the plate for UIC, going 2-for-3 and driving in Edel Leyden on a double for the game-winning RBI.

UIC will continue play at the Triangle Classic tomorrow at noon against Maryland.

 Printer-Friendly Format

 E-mail this article

Senior Samantha Luli allowed just one pitching and knocked in the game-winning RBI in the Flame's 1-0 victory against Ball State.

