Luli Tosses No-Hitter As Softball Downs Ohio University

Flames pick up 3-0 win to open Triangle Classic

Feb. 18, 2000

Raleigh, N.C. - Senior Samantha Luli pitched a complete-game no-hitter as No. 22 UIC downed Ohio University, 3-0, Friday at the Triangle Classic in Raleigh, N.C.

Luli threw seven strikeouts in seven innings en route to her fifth no-hit performance at UIC. Her last no-hitter came in last year's MCC Tournament, when Luli pitched a perfect game in an 8-0 win over Wright State.

The Flames were helped out on the offensive end by Gina Arnold, Edel Leyden and Jennifer Tiffany, who each went 2-for-4 from the plate with one RBI. The victory improved UIC's record to 10-4 on the season and gave head coach Mike McGovern his 495th career victory.

The Flames' afternoon game against UNC Charlotte was postponed until 9:30 a.m. Saturday because of heavy rain and wet field conditions that have plagued the Raleigh area over the past several days.
