Chicago, Ill. - The UIC softball heads out this weekend for a six-day road swing through North Carolina in which the Flames could play as many as 12 games.

The Flames are 8-15 overall this season and are looking to snap a two-game losing streak.

The trip, which coincides with spring break on the UIC campus, kicks off on Friday at the 2005 Wolfpack Challenge in Raliegh, N.C. The Flames are one of 13 teams competing in the three-day event hosted by North Carolina State University.

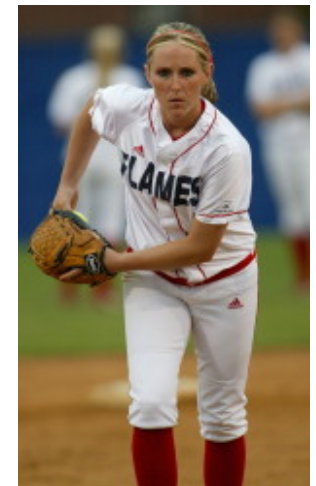

From there, UIC will play doubleheaders on Tuesday, March 22nd, versus UNC Charlotte and on Wednesday, March 23rd, versus Elon.

At the Wolfpack Challenge, the Flames are slotted in Pool 3 along with Central Connecticut State, Canisius and UNC Wilmington.

UIC will take on each team in its pool once with the teams then seeded in a double-elimination tournament based on its pool record.
