Gainesville, Fla. - Oklahoma hurler Kami Keiter was dominating and the Sooner bats were hot early, as eighth-ranked Oklahoma defeated the University of Illinois at Chicago softball team, 5-1, in the first game of GRU Florida Softball Classic on Friday afternoon.

It was the Sooners' (1-0) first game of the 2003 ledger and they wasted little time getting to UIC (0-6) pitcher Alison Aguilar.

After Kristin Vesely walked and Erin Evans singled, Christina Enea came through with a one out single to left to plate the first two Sooner runs.

It was more of the same in Oklahoma half of the second, as Vesely scored a pair with a single up the middle plating Heather Scaglione (double) and Keiter (single).

Keiter pitched five innings, giving up only two UIC hits and one run on the day to pick-up her first win of the season.

Joyce Cathey and Alycia Creese were the only Flames to visit the hit column with one apiece, as Creese scored Cathey on a single in the first for the Flames only run.
