Astiazaran Named To The NFCA All-Great Lakes Region First Team

Senior adds to her 2005 Horizon League Player of the Year and All-Horizon League First Team honors.

May 18, 2005

Chicago, Ill. - The National Fastpitch Coaches Association announced on Wednesday afternoon that University of Illinois at Chicago senior Cameron Astiazaran has earned a spot on the 2005 All-Great Lakes Region First Team.

Astiazaran, the 2005 Horizon League Player of the Year, was one of the most dominant leadoff hitters in the country this season, batting .481 with 102 hits, 27 doubles, 17 home runs and 54 RBI.

The Flames' designated player ranks in the top five nationally in both batting average and slugging percentage (.887) while she leads the country in both total hits and doubles per game.

Astiazaran is now eligible for All-American consideration. Announcement of the 2005 NFCA/Louisville Slugger All-American Teams will be done prior to the College World Series, which is held June 2-8, in Oklahoma City, Okla.

UIC finished the year with a record of 40-27 while claiming the Horizon League regular-season title.
