Chicago, Ill. - The UIC softball team's game at Wisconsin this evening has been rained out. The game will not be rescheduled.

This is the second time that the Flames and Badgers have been rained out this season and the 13th game overall this year that UIC has had a game cancelled due to poor weather conditions.

The Flames will now wrap up the regular season this weekend as they host Horizon League leading Youngstown State in a pivotal three-game series at Flames Field. The series gets underway with a doubleheader on Saturday at 1:00 p.m.
