April 2, 2004

Chicago, Ill. - The UIC softball team's Horizon League opening series at Youngstown State has been cancelled due to poor field conditions and bad weather slated for Saturday and Sunday.

The games will not be made up.

The Flames (13-18) are coming off a doubleheader sweep of Bradley on Thursday and will now next play on Tuesday at Wisconsin at 6:00 p.m.

The Penguins (14-8) have now had their last eight games cancelled due to inclement weather and this is the second consecutive league series Youngstown State has not played. The Penguins three-game set last weekend at UW-Green Bay was also called off due to poor field conditions.
