NEWS & NOTES:

TUMBLING LIKE IT WAS THEIR B-DAY:

The UIC women's gymnastics team picked-up its second victory over Illinois State on Sunday, 194.1-192.7, at the UIC PEB. Bars and floor were the keys to the victory, as the Flames took the top-six spots on floor and the top-five on bars.

AC IN THE AA:

Alyson Cacciatore led the charge for the home team, winning the all-around with a score of 39.05. The sophomore from Glenview tied for the win on floor scoring a 9.9, tied teammate Holly Bruhn (Oak Creek, Wis./Oak Creek) for the win on bars (9.9) and finished second on beam (9.75).

...SO COME GIVE ME A HUG:

Veronique Meunier (Hull, Quebec, Can.) added a victory for the Flames on vault with a score of 9.75. Bruhn was second on vault with a 9.725 to close out a nice day. Jackie Jaworowicz (Rockford, Ill./Keith School) equaled Cacciatore on floor at 9.9 to tie for the victory.

KENNEL BREAK:

The NIU Huskies will visit the PEB on Sat., Mar. 15 at 2:00 p.m.

THE HAWKS AND KNIGHTS:

On Friday in Iowa City the 11th-ranked Flames took on the fifth-ranked Iowa Hawkeyes and couldn't get anything going, losing, 212.575-197.55. On Sunday, the Flames hosted Army and jumped out to an early lead, but couldn't hang on dropping a 208.3-208.05 decision to the Black Knights at the UIC PEB.

NEILVILLE:

Neil Faustino (Stockton, Cal./Lincoln) started his weekend finishing second in the all-around at Iowa to Cameron Schick with a score of 51.25 and concluded his weekend in fine fashion. Faustino, a sophomore, paced UIC with five top-three tallies, including tying for the win on rings (9.35) with Army's Brian Lee, and winning the vault competition with a nifty 9.5.

ATHLETIC SUPPORTERS:

Matt Musielak (Freeburg, Ill./Althoff Catholic) also visited the winner's circle for the Flames taking the high bar competition with a score of 8.8. Newcomer Nick Stavros (Hawthorne Woods, Ill./Stevenson) added a runner-up finish on pommels with an 8.85, while Jonathan Joyce (Lisle, Ill./Naperville N.) was second on high bar (8.6).
