Meunier, Kachman Lead Women's Gymnastics At San Jose State Triangular

Flames take third on Friday night.

Feb. 4, 2006

San Jose, Calif.- Despite event victories from senior Veronique Meunier and freshman Annie Kachman, the UIC women's gymnastics team was unable to overcome a few falls as the Flames took third at the San Jose State Triangular.

Meunier won the vault with her best performance of the season, posting a 9.850 en route to the title. She also led the team in all-around competition with a 38.425 to take fourth overall.

Kachman shared first place on floor exercise with a 9.850.

Fellow rookie Zandre Labuschagne had a stellar meet, showing well in her first all-around with a 38.4 while taking second on bars with a team-high 9.750.

Jessie Jaworowicz looked excellent on Friday, taking second on the beam with a 9.7 while sharing second on floor with a 9.8.

The Flames posted a team score of 189.675. San Jose State won the meet in their home gym with a 192.950, while Seattle Pacific took second with a 190.225.

UIC returns home next Saturday to take on Midwest Independent rival Southeast Missouri State at the UIC PEB at 7:00 p. m.
