Jenni Goebel Named Horizon League Cross Country Athlete Of The Week

For the second time this season, Goebel takes home weekly accolade after winning the Notre Dame Invitational

Oct. 8, 2002

Chicago, Ill. - University of Illinois at Chicago runner Jenni Goebel (Lombard, Ill./Willowbrook) was named the Horizon League Cross Country Athlete of the Week, it was announced today.

Goebel dodged raindrops and poor weather conditions on Friday at the Notre Dame Invitational in South Bend, Indiana. The junior won the individual championship in the gold race covering the 5K course in 18:03, 16 seconds ahead of her nearest competitor.

The Flames finished eighth-place in the 16-team field.

The UIC women's cross country team will compete again on Saturday, October 19, when the Flames split their squad and participate in two locations.

The top runners will compete at the Pre-Nationals race in Terre Haute, Indiana, while the remainder of UIC's team will participate in the UW-Parkside Invitational in Kenosha, Wisconsin.
