Fairborn, Ohio- The UIC men's tennis team bounced back in a big way from Friday's tough home loss to UW-Green Bay, taking every match against host Wright State in a 7-0 victory at the WSU Tennis Courts to close out the regular season.

UIC (8-12, 3-2 Horizon League) took all five played singles matches in two sets and easily snared the doubles point to down the Raiders (2-23, 0-4 Horizon League).

Artsem Burmistray turned in another outstanding performance at the top spot, defeating Kevin Teufel 6-1, 6-2. Sean Kreymborg's first collegiate venture at No. 4 singles turned out successful as well, with the freshman earning a strong 6-2, 6-2 win over Brian Savino.

The Flames earned their second 7-0 victory of the week after downing IPFW by the same score on April 15th.

UIC heads to the 2004 Horizon League Tennis Championships in Indianapolis, Ind. beginning this Friday.

Chicago, Ill.- The UIC men's tennis team split the singles slate against Horizon League rival Wisconsin-Green Bay on Friday afternoon, but the doubles point proved to be the difference as the Phoenix crept past the Flames, 4-3, at the UIC Outdoor Courts.

UIC (7-12, 2-2 Horizon League) is now entrenched in third place in the league following the loss to second-place UW-Green Bay (10-9, 4-1 Horizon League).

The Flames dropped the doubles point in three close matches. Artsem Burmistray and the returning Karol Zarucki grabbed a No. 1 doubles win against Ben Davis and Mat Weiss.

Paul Glendenning forced a tiebreaker against Eric Hines after dropping the first set, eventually taking the No. 4 singles contest in a tough 5-7, 7-6(5), 6-1 win.

Pat Zufan played extra tennis but took out Weiss in a solid 6-3, 4-6, 7-6(4) win.

Freshman Sean Kreymborg looked strong at the No. 6 slot, downing Scott Dickert in a 6-3, 6-1 win.

John Cincola was a late singles scratch due to injury, forcing UIC Head Coach Hans Neufeld to shuffle his lineup for the second straight Friday. Zarucki was unable to play in last Friday's match versus league-leading Butler.
