Chicago, Ill. - The UIC men's tennis team has been seeded second in the 2008 Horizon League Championship tournament, being held on Saturday, April 26 through Sunday the 27 at North Central High School in Indianapolis, Ind.

The Flames will take on Youngstown State, the seventh seed in the tournament, on Saturday at 8 a.m. EST.

The two squads met during the regular season at home on March 29, with UIC winning the match by a score of 6-1.

If the Flames advance, they will meet the winner of the #3 Butler/#6 Valparaiso match in the semi-finals on Saturday at 1 p.m.

The league finals will take place on Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

Cleveland State earned the No. 1 seed and received an automatic bye into the semifinals.
