Eric Cervantes Named To Top Drawer Soccer College Team Of The Week

Senior forward earns more national recognition for Sunday's five-point effort.

Sept. 25, 2006

Chicago, Ill.- UIC senior forward Eric Cervantes (Hoffman Estates, Ill./Hoffman Estates H.S.) continues to receive national recognition for his five-point performance against Detroit this past Sunday, earning a spot on the Top Drawer Soccer College Team of the Week for the period ending Sept. 24th.

Cervantes opened the scoring against the Titans in the 20th minute, and after assisting on the Flames' second goal in the 81st minute he scored for the second time in the 83rd minute against the defending Horizon League regular season champions to register his first career multi-goal game.

The fourth-year striker is now tied for the team lead in goals with four.

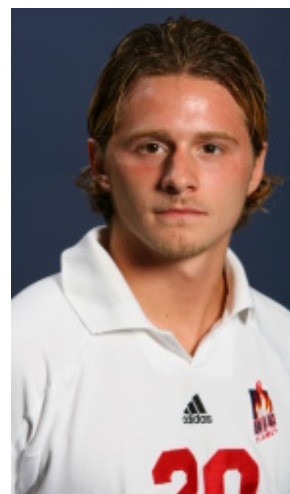

In addition to his selection to the Top Drawer Soccer College Team of the Week, Cervantes was also honored on the College Soccer News National Team of the Week and was named the Horizon League Player of the Week.

This is the third straight week that a UIC player has been recognized by Top Drawer Soccer. Senior back Derek Kosek earned a spot on the College Team of the Week on September 11th, while sophomore back Pat McMahan got the call last week.

Cervantes and the eighth-ranked Flames (7-0-2, 1-0-0 Horizon League) head to Madison, Wis., to face Wisconsin this Thursday at 6:00 p.m.
