Bus Available To Students For Men's Soccer NCAA Tournament Second Round Game

Flames take on Wildcats for berth in Sweet 16 this Wednesday night.

Nov. 26, 2007

The UIC Athletic Department will be providing a student fan bus to Evanston this Wednesday, November 28th for the UIC men's soccer team's game against Northwestern in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at 7:00 p.m. at Lakeside Field.

Students interested in bus transportation to see the Flames face the Wildcats in Evanston this Wednesday should contact Shawn Sullivan at (312) 355-1330 or via e-mail at ssulli3@uic.edu by noon on Wednesday to reserve their seat.

For just $5 students will receive a ticket to the NCAA Tournament game and a bus ride to the game and back. The bus will depart from the Flames Athletic Center (839 W. Roosevelt Road) at 5:30 p.m. and return to the Flames Athletic Center immediately following the match.

For $15 students will receive the aforementioned ticket and bus transportation, as well as a commemorative UIC Flames scarf.

The Flames advanced to the round of 32 for the second consecutive season after taking down Saint Louis in an exciting penalty kick shootout last Friday.
