Chicago, Ill.- UIC Soccer and John Trask Total Soccer will join forces for a second consecutive year and offer four weeks of summer soccer camp through the UIC Soccer Day Camp and Residential Camp.

UIC Soccer Day Camp is designed for boys and girls of all interests and playing abilities from ages 4-14.

The UIC Residential Camp is a more advanced training program designed for high school boys ages 14-18 and will provide a professional/collegiate learning environment for young players serious about perfecting their game.

Directing the camps is UIC head coach John Trask. Fresh off guiding the UIC men's soccer team to a 13-3-5 season, the school's first NCAA at-large berth and a season of national rankings as well as team and individual accolades, Trask is excited about continuing to become involved in the Chicago soccer community.

"We are excited to offer each camper, regardless of age or ability, the opportunity to maximize their potential and passion for the great game of soccer," said Trask.
