Chicago, Ill.- The 15th-ranked UIC men's soccer team begins its quest for the 2006 Horizon League Tournament Championship this Saturday night with a match against Wright State in the league tournament quarterfinals at Flames Field.

Kickoff is at 7:00 p.m. Central.

All-Horizon League First Teamer Derek Kosek and the UIC soccer team open the Horizon League Tournament at home on Saturday night.

The Flames own the tournament's top seed after clinching the 2006 Horizon League regular season title last Sunday. A win over the eighth-seeded Raiders would bring the league tournament's semifinal and championship matches to Flames Field next weekend.

UIC and Wright State last met on October 13th in Dayton. Tonci Skroce's penalty kick goal with a minute left in the final overtime session sealed a 2-1 Flames victory.

The last time UIC was the top seed in the conference tournament was in 2000. That year the Flames outlasted Cleveland State, UW-Milwaukee and UW-Green Bay en route to the tournament crown and a trip to the NCAA Tournament, where UIC advanced to the round of 16.

The Flames are one of just nine Division I teams to have two losses or less.
