

Free Student Bus Trip Available For This Saturday's UIC-Loyola Game

UIC students get free ticket, pizza and bus transportation to and from Gentile Center courtesy of UPS.

Feb. 5, 2008

Chicago, Ill.- The UIC Athletic Department announced on Tuesday, Feb. 5 that UPS will provide a free student bus trip for this Saturday's men's basketball game between crosstown rivals UIC and Loyola at the Gentile Center.

UPS will provide a free ticket, pizza and transportation to and from the Feb. 9 game, which begins at 7 p.m.

Students must RSVP to ssulli3@uic.edu by Thursday, Feb. 7 at noon.

The bus will leave from the Flames Athletic Center at 839 W. Roosevelt Road for the Gentile Center at 6 p.m. on Saturday. Students are encouraged to come early to cheer on the UIC gymnastics teams at 5 p.m. next door at the Physical Education Building, as the men's team hosts William & Mary and the women's squad takes on Arizona.

UIC students can watch Josh Mayo and the Flames tangle with Loyola at the Gentile Center for free this Saturday.