

Men's Tennis Opens League Action With Sweep Of Wright State

Flames take all three doubles matches for first time this season in domination of the Raiders.

Feb. 8, 2009

Results

CHICAGO - The UIC men's tennis team opened Horizon League play with a resounding 7-0 victory over visiting Wright State Saturday night at the Hinsdale Racquet club.

After easily winning at the first doubles position, the second and third teams persevered in tight matches to pull them out to claim the doubles point in UIC's favor.

The Flames then took over singles play with ease, allowing only one match to go to a third set.

UIC returns to action next Saturday against Bradley at the Hinsdale Racquet Club at 6 p.m.

Sebastian Lystad picked up wins at the top singles and doubles' slots on Saturday against league foe Wright State at the Hinsdale Racquet Club.