

Softball Opens Exhibition Season With 8-0 Win Over Moraine Valley

Sarah Clynes goes 4-for-4 at the plate in the victory over the Cyclones.

Sept. 16, 2007

Box Score

Chicago, Ill. - The UIC softball team opened its fall exhibition season on a strong note with an 8-0, six-inning victory over Moraine Valley Community College at Flames Field on Sunday morning.

Junior Sarah Clynes was a perfect 4-for-4 at the plate with two RBI, while freshman Whitney Orellena took care of things in the circle, tossing a two-hit shutout.

Orellena struck out eight en route to the victory and retired 11 straight batters in one stretch against the Cyclones.

Ashlee Ackermann (2-for-2), Melissa Marinacci (2-for-4), Claire Donyanavard (2-for-3) and Brittany Dixon (2-for-3) all had multi-hit games for the Flames.

Jessica Noble was pegged with the loss for Moraine Valley, despite allowing just one unearned run in three innings of work.

UIC feasted on the Cyclones bullpen scoring seven runs in the final 2 1/3 innings.

Sarah Clynes went 4-for-4 with two RBI in the Flames' win over Moraine Valley.