Dejeanette Flournoy Named Horizon League Women's Basketball Player of the Week

Senior forward earns league recognition for the second time in three weeks.

Feb. 14, 2005

Chicago, Ill. - The Horizon League announced on Monday afternoon that University of Illinois at Chicago senior forward Dejeanette Flournoy (Chicago, Ill./Washington/Casper CC) has been named the Women's Basketball Player of the Week for the period ending February 13th, marking the second time in the last three weeks that she has been honored by the league.

Flournoy averaged a double-double of 16.5 points and 11 rebounds in two games for UIC last week, as the Flames went 1-1 in Horizon League action.

The Chicago, Ill., native's most impressive performance came in a loss against Wright State on Saturday afternoon, shooting a perfect 7-for-7 from the field to finish with 17 points and 10 rebounds.

Earlier in the week, Flournoy picked up her second double-double of the season with 16 points and a game-high, 12 rebounds in a 74-70 win over Butler.

For the season, Flournoy is averaging 9.5 points per game and 7.3 rebounds overall and 11.6 points and 9.0 boards per contest in Horizon League play. Her current field goal percentage of 55.5% (61-for-110) would be a school-record for a single-season.

UIC will be back in action on Thursday evening, as they will travel to Wisconsin to square off with UW-Milwaukee for a critical Horizon League match-up at 7:00 p.m. in the Klotsche Center.
