Chicago, Ill.- After becoming one of college soccer's national darlings in 2006, the UIC men's soccer team will begin a highly-anticipated 2007 campaign this Sunday night against BIG EAST foe Marquette at Flames Field.

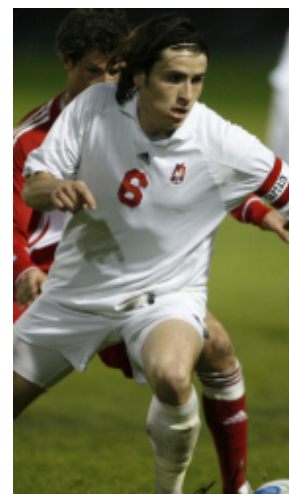

Kickoff is at 6:00 p.m. Central. Flames Field is located directly south of the Physical Education Building at 901 W. Roosevelt Road on UIC's South Campus.

UIC had a year to remember last season. The Flames went 13-3-5 and earned a Horizon League title and an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament due to a clutch offense and the nation's most dominant defense.

Now UIC must prove itself all over again, and this year's group of skilled veterans and highly-touted newcomers are up to the task.

The Flames' first test of 2007 is a much-improved Marquette squad. The Golden Eagles opened their season with a 1-0 loss to Denver on Friday.
