Sept. 16, 2008

Chicago, Ill. - UIC junior Baggio Husidic (Velika Kladusa, Bosnia/Libertyville H.S.) was named to the Soccer America Men's Team of the Week on Tuesday, Sept. 16.

Husidic scored for the fourth time in five matches when he converted his second penalty kick of the season during a 4-1 win over then-No. 19 Michigan last Friday.

The Bosnian midfielder has at least one point in each of UIC's games, with four goals and two assists accounting for his team-leading 10 points to date.

This is the second straight week that UIC has featured a player on the Soccer America Men's Team of the Week. Charlie Trout was selected to the publication's weekly national team last Tuesday.

In addition to his honor from Soccer America, Husidic was also named the Horizon League Player of the Week and the NSCAA Player of the Week earlier this season.

UIC, ranked as high as No. 9 in the nation this week by the SoccerTimes.com College Coaches Poll, will host Princeton this Friday at 7 p.m.
