

Men's Soccer Featured On ESPNsoccernet

Maria Burns Ortiz chronicles Flames' remarkable turnaround under head coach John Trask.

Oct. 13, 2008

Chicago, Ill.- The UIC men's soccer team, ranked seventh in this week's Soccer America poll, received even more national attention on Monday, Oct. 13 when ESPNsoccernet published a story on the Flames' quick turnaround under head coach John Trask.

The article, written by columnist Maria Burns Ortiz and featuring interviews with Trask, junior midfielder Baggio Husidic, junior goalkeeper Jovan Bubonja and freshman back Julian Serrato, looks at UIC's success since Trask was hired in January of 2005 and the Flames' staying power on the national scene.

To read the article click here.

John Trask and the UIC men's soccer program are featured in an ESPNsoccernet story this week.